22. (Internal Use Only - CM) LIAISON [ ] received a call from Aileen Ross, in the office of Representative Gerry Studds (D., Mass.) concerning a constituent who wanted to know if he could obtain unclassified or declassified information from the CIA. I confirmed with DOCEX, at the Library of Congress, that a list of unclassified CIA publications available through DOCEX could be obtained by anyone asking for it. I relayed this information to Aileen and she said she thought this would appropriately answer the constituent's inquiry and that she would reach the DOCEX people directly.

23. (Internal Use Only - CM) BRIEFING At the request of [ ] I arranged through [ ] NFAC/CSS, for William Richardson, of the staff of the Senate Foreign Relations Foreign Assistance Subcommittee, to participate with his colleague, Hans Binnendijk, in a briefing on Saudi Arabia, at Headquarters, on 17 November, and then to receive a briefing on Iran immediately thereafter. Richardson appreciated the arrangements. Like Binnendijk, he has a Top Secret clearance.

24. (Unclassified - MLG) LIAISON Janice O'Connell, of the staff of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, called to request one copy of "World Steel Market Continued Trouble Ahead." The publication was forwarded to her.

25. (Unclassified - MLG) LIAISON Margo, in the office of Senator S. I. Hayakawa (R., Calif.), called to request a "CIA study" on links between the Japanese government and Japanese corporations. I informed Margo that there was no unclassified CIA study on the subject of interest to the constituent, per a similar request that [ ] had handled.
